

The Ottawa team triumphs

at the Canadian Forces Regional Golf Championship

Members of the Ottawa Nationals men's and women's teams.

Photos : Marie-Josée Dessureault – PSP

Sergeant Shane Sweetman, Captain Frédéric Morin and Corporal Alexandre Haché represented the Montreal region this year.

| Yves Bélanger, Servir

The Ottawa Nationals men's and women's teams walked away with top honours from the Canadian Forces Regional Golf Championship, held in Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu from July 22 to 26.

The regional event welcomed 28 players. The Montreal region was represented by Sergeant Shane Sweetman and Captain Frédéric Morin, both instructors at the Canadian Forces Leadership and Recruit School, as well as Corporal Alexandre Haché, barrackman at the Saint-Jean Garrison.

By winning the championship, the Ottawan teams obtained their pass to participate in the Canadian Forces National Golf Championship held in Shilo, Manitoba. The grand champions in the Forces were crowned on August 15. The Atlantic team took top honours in the men's category, while the Ontario team took top honours in the women's category. For all results, visit the CFB Shilo CAF Sports & Fitness Facebook page.

Military golfers interested in joining the Montreal region team can contact the military sports coordinator at vanessa.mcalpine@forces.gc.ca.

