

THE DEBT SMASHER

Turn small wins into serious freedom

Corporal Jackson came back from deployment with a goal: To crush their credit card debt once and for all. They started small—with just $100 at a time. Then came an unexpected financial windfall that they used to zero out a high-interest card. That big-win moment changed everything. Now they're on a mission.

"Watching the balance hit zero made me realize I could do this. I wasn't just paying down debt, I was taking control of my financial life."
