

THE WEALTH BUILDER

Make your money work for you, starting now

Sgt. Patel didn't think of themselves as an investor, until they realized their deployment allowance could do more than sit in a savings account. With help from a SISIP advisor, they opened an investment account and got a taste of compounding growth. Now they're hooked and on track for long-term financial security.

"I always thought investing was for rich people. Then I realized I have more power than I thought. All I have to do is spend less than I make. Then I can invest my savings and make it grow."

Want to be a Wealth Builder?

Start here:

1

Know why you want to invest: a down payment, an early retirement, or some other specific goal.

2

Set up automatic monthly contributions to a diversified investment portfolio held within a tax-smart account. Consider directing some or all of your CAF pay increase to building your long-term wealth.

3

Book a planning session to learn your risk profile and explore your investment options.
